ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION, made and entered into at the City of New York, this day
Witness,

THAT we, whose hands and seals are hereunto subscribed and affixed, have associated, and by these presents do associate ourselves, under and pursuant to the provisions of the Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, entitled "An Act to authorize the business of Banking," passed April 18, 1838, and the Acts of said Legislature additional thereto and amendatory thereof, upon the following terms, for the purpose of conducting the business of Banking:

ARTICLE I.

SEC. 1. The name of this Association shall be, "THE NATIONAL BANK, IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK," and its business of discounts and deposits is to be carried on in the City of New York. Name and Place.

SEC. 2. The amount of its Capital Stock shall be Fifteen Hundred Thousand Dollars, divided into Thirty Thousand Shares, of Fifty Dollars each, with power and authority to hereafter increase the same, in the mode provided for in Article VIII., Sec. 4 of these Articles, to an amount not exceeding Five Millions of Dollars. All the Stockholders of the Corporation, known as "the President, Directors, and Company of the National Bank, in the City of New York," shall have the privilege of subscribing for double the number of Shares which shall be held by each of them on the first day of August next, provided they shall do so on or before that day; and any number of Shares which may not be subscribed for, under the above privilege, may be apportioned to the other subscribers, or sold at auction or otherwise, at not less than par, as the Directors may determine, for the benefit of the Association.

The Capital Stock beyond the sum of Nine Hundred and Thirty-seven Thousand Five Hundred Dollars, shall be called in at the discretion of the Directors, at any time hereafter, notice of at least two months being previously given by publication in two of the Daily Newspapers printed and published in the City of New York; and if any Shareholder, or his or her legal representatives, shall omit to make payment in pursuance of such notice, the Shares on which payment shall be so omitted, together with all previous payments thereon, may be forfeited by the Directors to the use of the Association, without further notice to such Shareholder, or to his or her legal representatives. And the President of the Association for the time being is hereby expressly and irrevocably empowered to sell the Shares so forfeited, for and on account of the Association, and thereupon to transfer the same to the purchaser or purchasers.

Election of Inspectors.

SEC. 4. The three following persons are hereby chosen and appointed as Inspectors of the first election for Directors of the Association to be held on the second Tuesday in January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight: First Inspectors.

William B. Astor, Stephen Brush, Daniel Cashman, any two of whom shall be competent to act; and the Board of Directors for the time being are hereby authorized to supply any vacancy that Vacancies to be filled.

may occur from time to time by the death or removal from the City of New York of any or either of said Inspectors above named, or of any Inspector or Inspectors who may hereafter be elected, or which vacancy may occur by the refusal to serve, or neglect to attend on the days of election, of any Inspector or Inspectors.

Election of Directors.

SEC. 5. All elections for Directors of the Association shall be by ballot, and shall be conducted by the Inspectors agreeably to the conditions, requirements, and provisions of Article 2. Title 2, Chap. 18, Part 1, of the Revised Statutes of the State of New York. Each Stockholder shall be entitled, directly or by proxy, to one vote on each share of the Capital Stock of the Association owned and held by him, in his own name, for at least thirty days previous to the election; and the nine persons who, at each annual election hereafter to be held, shall have the greatest number of votes shall be the Directors.

Number of Directors.

Organize after election.

SEC. 6. The Directors thus elected shall take their seats at the Board on the day succeeding the second Tuesday in January in each year, and shall, as soon as may be, proceed to organize and to elect by ballot one of their number to be President of the Association. And if any Director of the Association shall cease to hold, in his own right, sixty shares of the Capital Stock of the Association, he shall thereby vacate his place as such Director; and whenever any vacancy shall happen, from any cause whatever, the same shall be filled for the remainder of the year by such person or persons as the Directors for the time being, or a majority of them, shall appoint.

Failure to elect Directors.

SEC. 7. The failure, for any cause, to elect Directors on any day whereon such election should have been held, as herein specified or appointed, shall not dissolve the Association, but it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to notify and cause such election to be held within sixty days after the day herein designated for the annual election.

ARTICLE VII.

Duties and powers of President.

SEC. 1. The President of the Association for the time being shall preside at any meeting of the Board of Directors at which he shall be present, and the said President is hereby indicated as the officer to whom conveyances shall be made of real estate, to take, hold, and convey the same in behalf of the Association, according to the provisions of the said Acts of the Legislature; and he is hereby authorized and empowered in his name as such President, or in the name of the Association, and under the direction of the Board of Directors, to collect, receive, and sue for any moneys or property due or belonging to the Association, or to compound for the same; to submit to arbitration any controversies in which it may be involved; to cancel and satisfy, on payment or compromise, any mortgage, judgment, or decree which it may hold, and to release and discharge the whole or any part of the property mortgaged or encumbered; and also to sell and transfer any public debt, stocks, or other property belonging or pledged to the Association; and to receive any dividends arising therefrom; and for any of the foregoing or other similar purposes, an Attorney at law or in fact under him at any time to appoint.

SEC. 2. In case of the absence or inability of the President, for any cause, to act as President, the Board may elect a Chairman or President pro tem., with power to perform the duties of the President, until the inability shall cease, or until a new President shall be appointed.

SEC. 3. The President and Cashier shall sign all Certificates of Stock to be issued by the Association.

SEC. 4. The Cashier shall keep minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors, or in his absence they shall be kept by the President, Chairman or President pro tem., or a person authorized by him.

ARTICLE VIII.

SEC. 1. A majority of all the Directors elected may, in their discretion, accept and exercise any additional powers or privileges which may at any time be conferred upon the Association, either by amendment of the Acts under which it is formed, or by any new enactment.

SEC. 2. Such majority may also apply for, and accept, any Act or Acts of Incorporation for Banking purposes, and upon such conditions as they may deem expedient; and may cause to be transferred and conveyed to the body corporate so to be created, all the property of the Association.

Amendment of Articles.

SEC. 3. Two-thirds in number of the Directors for the time being may, at any time or times hereafter, propose amendments to these Articles. Such amendments shall be published at length, once in each week, for at least three successive weeks, in two daily newspapers printed in the City of New York; and if after such publication, Shareholders holding in their own right a majority of all the Shares of the Capital Stock then existing, shall consent to such amendments, by an Act in writing, by them or their authorized Attorney or Attorneys; such amendments, on recording the same, together with such written act of consent, in the offices, and in the manner provided by law for filing or recording the Certificate of Association, shall become and be a portion of these Articles.

Increase of Capital Stock.

SEC. 4. The Board of Directors for the time being is hereby empowered, in behalf of the Association, from time to time to increase its Capital Stock, until such Capital Stock shall amount to five millions of dollars, and also to increase the number of Associates; but no increase of the Capital Stock shall be made, unless by a vote of three-fourths of the Directors of the Association; and in case of any such increase to the Capital Stock, the additional Shares of Stock shall be offered in the first instance, at par, (by publishing a notice thereof, once in each week, for at least six weeks successively, in two of the daily newspapers, to be printed in the City of New York) to the Shareholders existing at the expiration of such notice, in rateable amounts, proportioned, as nearly as may be, to the number of shares held by them respectively. Such of the additional Shares as shall not be taken by such Shareholders within ten days after the expiration of such notice, may be disposed of by the Directors for the benefit of the Association, at not less than par. Whenever any increase shall be made to the Capital Stock of this Association, the persons taking the additional Shares shall, by an instrument in writing, signed and sealed by them, or their authorized Attorney, specify the number of Shares taken by them respectively, with their places of residence, and shall therein acknowledge that they take such additional Shares, subject in all
